REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Jonesville Elementary / Middle School is a Title I School that serves approximately five hundred twenty students from 4 year old Kindergarten through 8th grade. The underlying philosophy of the school is a strong belief that all children, given the opportunity, can learn. The school's overall goal is to provide quality instruction to all students so test scores will improve. The school's overall goal is to provide quality instruction to all students resulting in improved test scores. A close relationship exists between the school and community, both of whom share high expectations for all children. The school's motto which is "One Family, One Mission: To create the best quality education for all students," is observed daily by parents, visitors, students, faculty, and staff. This was reflected in Jonesville Elementary/Middle School making AYP again this year. Through the hard work and dedication of our students, parents, community members, faculty and staff, Jonesville Elementary/Middle School has successfully implemented the following programs: MAP data to differentiate Instruction, grammar across grade levels, individualized and group instruction, meaningful literacy activities, standards based curriculum, parenting workshops, character education, readers and writers workshop, Peer Coaching Network, and a partnership with Winthrop University Netscope.

In conclusion, the 2012-2013 school year was an exciting time for Jonesville Elementary/Middle School. The Jonesville Elementary/Middle School family will continue to address the academic, social, emotional and physical needs of the students.

Jonesville Elementary Middle School was proud to announce accomplishments of teachers and students. These accomplishments included the following: Jen Roberts was named 2013 JEMS Teacher of the Year, two students received Veteran's Day Writing Awards, two students were named District Writer's Conference Award Winners, three students received National Career Poster Contest Awards, students received Honorable Mention at the Union County Art Fair, one student received 3rd place at the Union County Art Fair, eleven students received the USC Upstate Artist Chosen Award, and three students were named Junior Scholars.

The following goals were addressed by the 2012-2013 School Improvement Council (SIC). The SIC is working to purchase a marquis to be placed in the front of the school, increase parent involvement through PTO meetings, parent nights, open house, and special events, continue the business partnership with Pacolet Milliken, Belk, and Dollar General and implement extracurricular activities for students.

Chair: Dr. Lance Miller, Parent

Principal: Mrs. Rene' Pryor
